

Do you know how to multiply communities of faith, hope, and love? In the global slums? US marginalized communities? Use your summer to learn well!

BUILDING FAITH COMMUNITIES

This 15-week online course applies a story-telling approach to the process of entering poor communities and developing holistic poor peoples' churches in ways faithful to the values and goals of the Kingdom of God. Entrance, proclamation, and discipleship are considered in relation to the processes of small-group formation and leadership development.

Theology

Explore biblical foundations for church planting, development, leadership, and multiplication.

Theory & Analysis

Learn practices and patterns critical to establishing churches among oral urban communities.

Action

Develop workplans for each stage of church planting and serve alongside church leaders

Topics include: Biblical Foundation | Poor Church Realities & Anthropology | Practical Discipleship | Propagating Small Groups | Oral Culture Realities | Community Transformation | Workplans for Church Planting Progressions | Pastoral Leadership & Team Training | Apostolic Structures

Dr. Viv Grigg, MATUL Program Director
